Caitlin: A revised FEC Form 1 was submitted today to delete the affiliation of the Tarrant County Republican Victory Fund with the Republican Party of Texas. The Tarrant County Republican Victory Fund is separate and independent of the Republican Party of Texas. The local party receives no funds from the state party. There is no overlap of officers between the local and state party, and the state party has no influence over the local party as to the election of officers or day-to-day business. The local party acts independently in its receipts and disbursements. Based on these facts, we have determined the county party and the state party are separate political entities, and we have submitted a revised Form 1 to reflect the disaffiliation.
